Casa Lluvià hosts the exhibition '20 architects of the twentieth century', constructivist portraits by Maria Picassó, from October 10th to November 3rd.

Maria Picassó is an architect and professional illustrator based in Barcelona, with wide range of projects for video games, books and worldwide press.

With a unique and recognized vector style, she is a versatile, enthusiastic and experienced artist who enjoys all the lines, shapes and colours.

In recent years, she has been invited to share her work, process and techniques in seminars and workshops both in Europe and in the United States.

In this show, she presents a collection of portraits which combine the resources of the classic cartoon with a technique of geometric composition close to design. Twenty architects who throughout the twentieth century have shaped our environment with their works and ideas.
